

Class : 3AM ....

Last night, I watched a documentary about life Guards in Britain on BBC1 Channel. The life Guards are British soldiers who protect royal buildings such as Buckingham Palace, St James and the Castle of Windsor. They wear uniforms which consist of a scarlet tunic, black trousers, long socks and hats which are called “bearskins”. The hats weight 665grams. The Guards are one of the attractions for tourists in London. People who love wild animals hate the Guards’ hats because they are made of fur. So, many famous persons wrote to Queen Elizabeth II and told her that it was wrong and cruel to kill bears to make fur hats. But the queen didn’t want to change the Guards’ fur hats because they are part of the English tradition.
